

Satellite radio should be able to offer its paying clients like myself anything they are equipped to offer that we demand -- and I demand local programming such as traffic, weather and sports.
I consider it a blatant infringement upon my rights to be told what I can and can't listen to via a subscription service.